

Make your own SLIME!

Ingredients

- 1 4 ounce bottle of school glue 1/2 cup
- 1 1/2 cup water divided
- 1 teaspoon Borax
- Food coloring optional

Instructions

1. In one bowl combine glue and 1/2 cup of the water. Stir to combine. Add food coloring if desired to have slime other color than white.
2. In another larger bowl combine 1 teaspoon of Borax with 1 cup of water. Dissolve borax.
3. Slowly pour glue and water mixture into Borax water. Whisking to combine.
4. Pour any excess water off being sure to not let slime glob run out.
5. Knead with hands to finish combining.
6. The slime gets smoother with time as the ingredients combine together.
7. Store in sealed container.

DAY ONE

Menu Suggestions:

Create your own pizza: Purchase or make base dough (sold in rolls usually), set out bowls of cheese, sauce, meats, veggies, or any other desired toppings. Each person can create their personal pizza and have fun doing it!

Snack: Fruit Skewers: purchase a few types of desired fruits and skewers. Cut up pieces of fruit to string onto skewers. This part can be done with children if desired.

Dot Game

Materials Needed: paper and pencil/marker/pen

Instructions: print a copy of the gameboard or make yourself. The board should have several rows of plain black dots. The size of the board can vary based on how long you want to play. Each player will take turns connecting two dots vertically or horizontally (not diagonally). The goal of the game is to get a whole "box" of dots connected by lines. Whoever gets the final line on a given box gets to claim the box by marking it with their color ink or writing the initial of their name inside. Keep playing until all boxes are claimed!

“Camping” Indoors

Pull out sheets, blankets, pillows etc.
Drape the sheets over the backs of chairs, couches, etc. to create your tent

Set up a comfy tent with your blankets, pillows, etc.

Now you have the perfect place to read, nap, or watch a movie

Game: “Going on a Camping Trip”

-Sit facing other players, ideally in a circle

-One person will start by saying I am going on a camping trip and I will bring a _____” (random object)

-The next player will say the same phrase as above with their own object they will “bring” as well as the object the person before them will bring.

-Continue in the circle, accumulating objects to bring on the camping trip and challenging everyone’s memory.

-For an extra challenge you can select a theme of objects to bring (things that are red, things that start with the first letter of your name, etc.)

DAY TWO

Menu Suggestions

Hot Dog and/or Hamburgers will continue our camping theme

Snack: S'mores Bar: For an indoor S'mores experience make them in the oven on a cookie sheet! For a fun variation try different candy like reese's or kit kat instead of regular chocolate.

Scavenger Hunt

Find one thing indoors or outdoors that starts with each letter of the alphabet

DAY THREE

Menu Suggestions:

Chicken Pot Pie

Snack: Smoothies purchase desired fruit, orange juice, and ice. Blend together and enjoy!

Drawing Match up

Materials Needed: Markers and Paper

Instructions: Have one person draw a picture that involves 3-4 images to start. It can include shapes, numbers, letters, and images. Keep the picture hidden from the other player/players. The drawer then describes what they've drawn trying to be as detailed as they can. The other player(s) will try to draw the same picture as the original drawing using only the verbal instructions of the original artist. Compare pictures at the end to see how closely the pictures match.

MYSTERY BAG

Menu Suggestion

Taco Bar: Set out bowls of tomatoes, onions, salsa, cheese, sour cream, seasoned ground beef, lettuce, etc. Give each person their own taco shell to create their taco masterpiece.

Snack: Make your own hummus: Blend together greek yogurt, chickpeas, lemon juice, garlic. Dip veggies, pita, or chips!

DAY FOUR

Divide into two teams with your group (or each person can be on their own).

-Each person can be assigned one color. The goal is to take pictures of as many objects that are this color. Set a time limit or just have the challenge ongoing throughout the day

Ace to King

Materials Needed: Deck of Cards

Instructions: Take one Ace, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, 8, 9, 10, jack, queen, and king from the deck. Start with just the cards Ace-5 and flip them over so you can't see the fronts of the card. Mix up the cards so you don't know which card is which. The person who is going to be the guesser will look at each card one time afterwards placing the card face down again on the playing surface. After you've seen all the cards one time the player must flip the cards over in ascending order from Ace-5. Depending on how easy this is add more cards. Eventually the goal is to be able to remember the location of all the cards from Ace to King.

Menu Suggestions

Breakfast for Dinner/Lunch: Have fun pulling out the pancakes, eggs, toast etc.

Snack: Rick Crispy sculptures: Melt marshmallows into butter and combine with Rice Crispy cereal until desired consistency.

Have fun shaping your Rice Crispy structure, get creative!

Bonus: use food coloring in marshmallows to enable different color structures!

DAY FIVE

MYSTERY BAG

-Toilet Paper Mummy Race:

Materials Needed: Toilet Paper Rolls

Instructions: This activity can be done with teams or not. There will be one or more “wrappers” and one “mummy.” The wrappers will start wrapping the mummy the quickest way they can think of. The first team to finish wrapping their mummy with the desired amount of toilet paper rolls wins! Optional: if just one team, time the activity to add a sense of urgency.

Cardboard Box City:

Materials Needed: Variety of large and small cardboard boxes, markers, scissors

Instructions: Allow your child to decorate the boxes and set them up to create forts, tunnels, or a whole new cardboard city! Boxes can be cut to create windows and decorated to reflect their personal style.
